Title of Your Project

Your Names, Institution

January 2026

1 Introduction

In this section introduce the topic of your project, and the motivation behind your work. Further explain the organization of your report, what aspects of the topic will be addressed and explain why they are relevant. For all the related work cited in the Introduction, provide references.

Your work will also be evaluated based on the use of Generative AI. The project should be your own work, while the use of AI should be limited to correcting grammar and style only.

The report should not be longer than 10 pages from the Introduction to the Conclusion section. References, Author Contributions, and Appendix, can follow after the Conclusion section.

2 Related Work

In this section you should describe all the work related to your topics, such as scientific papers, reports, etc. that address the same topics as your project and are reliable sources of information. In practice, section will contain the relevant information from the literature you consulted with during your project implementation. If your project is a critical analysis of the existing published research, you do not need a Related Work section as this one.

3 Methodology

In the Methodology section, you will describe what you did and how you did it. This section can have subsections according to different aspects of your approach.

4 Results or Findings

In this section you will describe your results, discuss them, and compare them with the results of the related literature. Optionally, a Discussion section can follow after this one.

5 Recommendations or Guidelines

This is an optional section that can contain recommendations or guidelines for users, depending on the nature of your project.

6 Conclusion

In Conclusion, you will repeat the importance of your work, summarize it, present your results and finalize the discussion. Finally, you should mention further improvements and future work.

7 References

A list of references you mention in the report.

8 Author Contributions

Write here which team member did which part of work on the project. For each team member, list tasks and write the percentage of work on the project.

9 Appendix

Put and describe here all the accompanying results, figures and resources used within the project that do not need to be in the main part of the report.